The late Mickey Stewart was one of the bravest and most merry men that ever lived. During his last illness Dr. Finnan, of Flagstaff, informed him that he had better make his will and prepare for death as he had only a few hours at best of life, and "if you have anything to say you had better say it." "Well," youth Mickey, as he called himself for a moment, "All I have to say is that God must be sorely in need of an angel when he calls Mickey Stewart." And the iron-nerved man from the north laid down and died.—Gazette.

A. V. Grossetta will begin tearing down the old adobe building on Congress street 100 feet east of the Radwold block preparatory to the erection of a handsome business block early next month. The structure will be one story but sufficiently strong to support one or two more stories. It is expected that the Masonic fraternity will join with Mr. Grossetta and add a second story to be used for lodge purposes. It is said that Messrs. Fleishman and Fitch will also begin the erection of two fine stores near the Radwold block. These buildings will be wired throughout with all the latest appliances for electric lighting.

A report is in circulation that a suit has been, or is to be, entered against Messrs. Hughes and Banes for the recovery of the $100,000 mine, near the Mineral Hill camp. On inquiry it is learned that the claim in question is not a part of the Mineral Hill group of mines, at all, but is wholly and entirely a side issue. The mine, that is, is being worked, and from which great quantities of rich ore are being taken, is the Mineral Hill group, of which the said mine is in no wise connected. The Mineral Hill group is a compact body of claims and bids fair to develop into a property of great value.

The third quarterly report of the Tucson Building and Loan Association for 1935, will be ready for publication early next week. At the same time, the secretary proposes, for the benefit of borrowers, to publish the condition of a first class western association conducted under a plan that will show the great difference in cost to a borrower on the actual amount of cash received on his loan. These quarterly reports are of interest, not only to stockholders but to the public generally, as they show fully the condition and progress of the institution, and, to a great extent, serve as a check on an examination of the eighth series of stock was open but 15 days, and no soliciting committee appointed, over 300 shares of stock were subscribed for.

RELIGIOUS CONGRESS.
A Letter from the Pope Bearing on the Subject.
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 18.—Archbishop Keizer has received a copy of the letter of Pope Leo, sent to Mr. Stoll, following on religious congress. Bearing is a translation:

Venerable brother, health and apostolic benediction. We have learned that in the United States of America, congress are convened, in which all the people are united prominently. Catholicism, as well as those of other denominations, to treat upon religious as well as upon secular matters. In this all recognize a desire for religious things, which this people is animated more seriously from day to day. But although these promiscuous conventions have until this time been tolerated with a prudent reserve, it would, nevertheless, seem more advisable that Catholics should hold their conventions separately and that the best utility from these conventions should result simply to their own benefit. They might be called with the understanding that dissenters should be open to all, including those who are outside the church.

THE MONEY RAISED. To Bring the Big Fight off at El Paso.

Good Work by the Citizens' Committee—Wild and Unfounded Reports from Mexico—The Matter to be Definitely Settled.

For two or three days, says the Times of that city, El Paso has been very much excited over the prospects of pulling the big Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight off in this city and just what these prospects amounted to not one single member of the different committees could explain. Somebody stated that El Paso could get the fight if it would subscribe $10,000 and that a meeting was called and committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions for the big fight. But the amusing part of the whole thing was that nobody could explain upon what authority they even had a right to expect that the fight could be pulled off here. The newspaper reporters were willing to accept as truth any kind of a report that even intimated that the fight was coming to El Paso. Yesterday morning a number of representative citizens were out soliciting subscriptions to a fund to bring the fight to El Paso and yet not a single man could give a reason for the hope that was within him. It was simply a case of going it blind. Each man thought his neighbor knew something.

An illustration of the ignorance of the authorities on the border as to where the fight will take place is the following from the San Antonio Express:

"It looks out tonight that a steady effort to get permission from President Diaz to pull the Corbett-Fitzsimmons contest off at Nuevo Leon has been in progress since the middle of last Saturday night a telegram was sent from here by a prominent citizen of Mexico to a gentleman directly connected with the Mexican government urging him to grant permission for the fight to take place at the point above mentioned. The telegram contains about 400 words and states that the fight was being promoted in Texas and other states whose motive was to manufacture political capital and campaign thunder. It means much for Mexico that the Mexican government should be the means of carrying 50,000 people there who will spend large sums of money. It will be a splendid advertisement for the land of the Montezuma and the way that the Mexican government is expected to handle the fight is expected tonight, and those interested are in hopes that, in view of the present and past record of the president, the original message will be favorably impressed and give his consent. It is further stated that the gentleman to whom the telegram was sent strongly favors the fight. He was today notified that an answer would probably be received in time for him to stop the departure from the city of Corbett and Fitzsimmons. He was today notified that his men put in the day getting ready to leave for Hot Springs. He is thoroughly disgusted over the turn affairs have taken and was very reluctant to accept the situation. He is now writing a long letter to the president in which he is saying that when everything else fails he is ready to have it out with the Mexicans in private just for fun. It is reported here that Fitz is preparing to move his training quarters to this city. The two Republics of the City of Mexico is the organ of President Diaz and the paper is expected to have issued a proposition to hold the fight in Mexico and that he will not interfere with it taking place in any state of Mexico, but will leave the matter to the government to settle to suit themselves."

Last night a Times reporter was shown a telegram from Dan Stuart stating that he was waiting to hear from the Mexican government. Mr. Stuart has suffered no small damage on account of the press and he is naturally very reticent when it comes to talking for publication, and he was very reluctant to be quoted as to his intentions. But it can be safely stated that El Paso is strictly in the race for the big event. The committee members yesterday had some anxious experiences in trying to discover what each other knew.

A Compliment to His Host.
The German emperor is a master of little surprises quite other than those which occasionally fetch his troops out of bed in the middle of the night when they least expect it. While at Windsor castle, England, he took the opportunity afforded by the absence of Lord Lansdale to unpack a very fine marble bust of himself and put it in a position screened by the leaves of a large palm. The sudden unveiling of his own statue was quite dramatic in its character and it need hardly be said that Lord Lansdale was highly delighted with the carefully planned compliment.

HERMOSILLO, Mex., Oct. 17.—Geo. T. Harrison and G. F. Baker, Colorado miners, were ordered in the Yaqui nation country about a month ago. The Mexican guide returned and claimed that they were shot by Indians, but it is suspected that he himself did the murders.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 17.—Never has such crowd been seen Denver as that in attendance at the annual festival of Mountain and Plain. Railroads estimate that they brought in 45,000 people to the city within the last two days. A Grand military parade was given this forenoon. A unique feature of the celebration today was furnished by bands of Santa Clara and Pueblo Indians and Utes. The Pueblo's gave an Arco or bow and arrow dance and the Utes a social dance.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 17.—The New American line steamship, St. Paul, completed an uneventful maiden trip across the Atlantic this morning. She left New York October 11 and encountered heavy head winds and fog. No attempt was made to speed the steamship on her first trip.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 16.—The American Bankers Association began its session yesterday with an unusually large attendance. President John J. O'Neil in his annual address declared there was no reason to believe that the country unless the issue of notes by the government be abandoned. President O'Neil said:

"One year ago at your convention in Baltimore a plan for the reformation of our national currency system was adopted, and while the recommendations of the association did not meet with universal approval, the action of the convention gave rise to a most extensive agitation of the currency question, both in and out of congress, and a great deal of valuable discussion followed. The effort of the association to deal with the subject has not been fruitless and it is to be hoped the agitation will continue the government will abandon the issue of currency reform, and the currency system shall be adopted. The avails of our present system were never more apparent than today."

During the past six weeks we have met together our countrymen passed through an experience that will not soon be forgotten. Following a season of universal liquidation and distress, the country was saved by the national currency system. The money market was restored almost to the very verge of bankruptcy and was saved from this only by heroic and patriotic action of a wise and courageous president.
